Reviews

An extremely wonderful pdf with perfect and lucid information. Better then never, though i am quite late in start reading this one. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.

Not illustrated. 1884 Excerpt: .that the labor of editing the American Standard of Excellence fell upon Mr. Williams, our President; and certainly the work of editing that, getting it into shape and reading proofs, has required a great deal of hard work from him, and it seems to me he should receive some remuneration for it. I don t know how much; I don t know what it is worth, or anything about it; but I certainly think he is entitled to some pay for the labor he has expended upon it. I would like to hear from others upon the subject. I wish to make a motion, that the Treasurer of the American Poultry Association be authorized by the American Poultry Association to pay Mr. Philander Williams $250 (or editing the American Standard of Excellence--the late edition. (Motion seconded.) The President--I do not feel right to accept, or allow the meeting to vote me such a sum. I do not really feel that I should--or at least it would be very handsome, and I should appreciate a smaller amount, or less than that, for the services I have rendered the Association during the last year. The work was such that I felt almost compelled to do it myself; and I am free to say, it has made a complete slave of me all summer, and the fall, too. But still that sum is more than I wou d be willing to accept or receive. If you will cut it...
