Thus far I wanderd, here I hid my head--For without money who would give me bread Nor yet could bread, nor friends, nor human art, Eer cure this broken, doubly broken heart. She added not, for on her faltering tongue, Half-formd the words at once suspended hung; Her eyes on trembling Damon fearful roll, And in a groan escapd her weary soul. Her babe soon followd--in one grave they lie; And Damon, though he lives, lives but to sigh. Even life he hates, society he shuns, But, where the brook beneath yon copse-wood runs, There you...
