This day is tons one of profound solemnity. We turn aside from the ordinary services to commemorate the mercies of God vouchsafed to this church and people, from generation to generation, through a period of ninety years. We desire to make this service expressive of our thankfulness to God for His past mercies, and to toll our children what the God of our Fathers has done in the times of old, so that they in turn may tell to others who are to follow them, the wonderful mercies of God continued. In attempting to take a retrospective and rapid review of God s dealings with this church and people during the ninety years of its existence, I feel the embarrassment, common to all who undertake such a task, for at the very outset I am reminded of the fact, that, as a historian, I...
